

The NJ "do not call list " is the best thing that has happened in this state! I can finally spend time with my family and not worry about getting interrupted during dinner time by a telemarketer. Keep the current act as is.